

Introduction digital version/ RIGeL Leistungsheft

To evaluate the performance during the PhD program credit points have to be collected in the RIGeL Leistungsheft. Herewith we would like to inform you on the following innovation. From the 1st December 2013 a digital version of the "RIGeL-Leistungsheft" will replace the actual paper version.

The digital Leistungsheft is available online in the RIGeL Members Area: <http://www.rigel-regensburg.de/member/>

Advantages of the digital Leistungsheft:

- you can update your Leistungsheft online anytime
- you can use the service of an automatically printout of Attendance Forms and Research Report Forms
- all credit points will be evaluated automatically
- you can print the Leistungsheft as PDF file anytime

Please have in mind that from the 1st December 2013 every PhD student must update her/his digital Leistungsheft regularly. If you were using the paper version of course all signatures and signed attendance forms will be accepted when submitting.

If you have any question please don't hesitate to contact us!
