

The research group 'Molecular Neurobiology' of Prof. Dr. Marco Rust at the Department of Medicine is currently accepting applications for a

Research Assistant (Postdoc)

The position is offered for a period of 2 years, if no former times of qualification must be considered. The starting date is as soon as possible. The position is full-time with salary and benefits commensurate with a public service position in the state Hesse, Germany (TV-H E 13, 100 %).

In a multidisciplinary approach, by combining molecular and cell biological techniques with modern microscopy approaches and mouse genetics, the research group of Prof. Dr. Marco Rust investigates regulatory mechanisms of neuronal actin dynamics and their relevance for the development and function of the mammalian brain. Apart from research, the applicant is expected to perceive teaching duties, such as the supervision of practical courses.

The position is limited to the period which is adequate to the duration of the qualification period. The qualification goal is a habilitation or an equivalent qualification required for a professorship. Within the scope of the assigned duties it will offer the possibility of independent scientific research for further qualification. The limitation complies to § 2, 1 S 1 WissZeitVG.

The successful applicant will hold a MSc-degree or equivalent in Neurobiology, Cell Biology, Biology or Biochemistry and a PhD in life science. Extensive experience in molecular and cell biology is expected. Experience in modern microscopic techniques, mouse genetics, neuroscience or the biology of the actin cytoskeleton would be an advantage.

We support women and strongly encourage them to apply. In areas where women are underrepresented, female applicants will be preferred in case of equal qualifications. Applicants with children are welcome - Philipps-University is certified as a family-friendly university. Sharing a full-time position (§ 8 Abs. 2 S. 1 HGLG) as well as a reduction of working time is possible. Applicants with a disability as described in SGB IX (§ 2 Abs. 2, 3) will be preferred in case of equal qualifications. Application and interview costs cannot be refunded.

Please send your application (including a single-page motivation letter) mentioning registration number fb20-0214-wmz-2019 as a single PDF file to marco.rust@staff.uni-marburg.de before October 2019, 25th.
